

The Highlight of my Break

Sabrina: My highlight was going to Australia and being able to do lots of different activities and go shopping!

Jemimah: I was able to go visit different PNG High Schools and it was awesome to see what they were like.

Matthew: Driving the mule was the highlight of my break.

Karis: Hiking into Gie was the highlight of my break. It took almost 17 hours to get there. We hiked to the water falls and I was able to spend time with many of my old friends.

Danielle: Hiking into Lele was my favorite part of the break and I thought it was really funny that I lost the sole of my shoe in the river.

Psalm 73:26
My flesh and heart may fail but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Following the path of least resistance is what makes rivers and men crooked.

Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace. And your best days are never so good that you're beyond the need of God's grace.

A coincidence is ... when God performs a miracle and decides to remain anonymous.

Katelyn: It was so much fun to go to Walindi with our baby sitters.

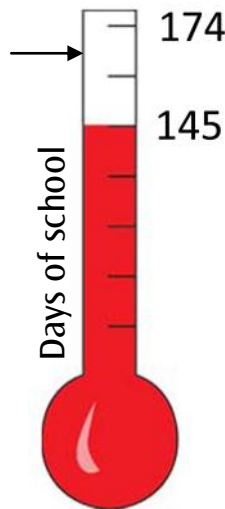

Davis: The highlight of my break was being able to relax, lie in and be able to eat cereal every day.

Micah: The highlight of my break was going to Restorf island, jumping off of the boat, snorkeling around the entire island and seeing all the fish.

Answers of MM13:

The genius noticed that none of the others was sure about the third cap (black or white). They must have seen both only white caps and wondered whether they themselves might have a black one. Therefore the genius knows for sure that they have seen him with a white cap!

Impact: Gandhi's shoes

Mahatma Gandhi led India peacefully to independence from England. He is called "Father of the Nation". In his life he was inspired by Jesus' sermon on the mount. Matt 5-7.

One day while getting on a train in India he loses 1 shoe. The shoe falls just beside the rails. But the train starts and Gandhi cannot possibly get that shoe back. Immediately he takes off his other shoe and throws that shoe next to the other beside the rails. Gandhi explains to the surprised fellow passengers: "The poor man that finds my shoe, finds now a pair that he can use!" Gandhi had an eye for others!

Let this story challenge you to do this week something special for somebody else who will never know that it was you. (Matthew 6:3)

Decide what to do.... and do it. Preferably somebody who will never expect that from you. Let your right hand not know what your left hand is doing! Remember... give feet to your faith! Live a life of giving. Your shoes for somebody else!
