What do you love about your Mother?

Micah:
I love my mother
because she makes us pizza on Friday
nights.
She gave me life.

Davis:
I love my mother because
she's one of a kind.

Jennifer: I love
my mother because she is my best friend and is always there
when I need
her. She also gives me space
when I don't feel like talking.

Levi: I love my mother because she's my favorite
mom. She's super agile.

Holly: I love my mother because she has a fun spirit and keeps the party go-

Morgan: I love my mother because she loves me no matter what, always forgives me and is always there to talk to me. I feel so blessed because I have a mom and a best friend in one!

Megan: She takes care of me.
She loves me. I love her so much. There are a million reasons.

Proverbs 1: 8-9 Hear, my son, your father's instruc-

Two Mothers and two daughters go shopping. They have $21 which they split equally between them. How can this be possible?

FACTS

Many of the sweaters worn by Mr. Rogers on the popular television show, Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood, were actually knitted by his real mother.

The mother who gave birth to the most children was the wife of Russian Feodor Vassilyev. Her 69 children included 16 pairs of twins, seven sets of triplets and four sets of quadruplets.

IMPACT MOTHER'S DAY

Living God's house-style!

Ann Maria Reeves Jarvis promoted a Mother's Day for mothers of soldiers in the American Civil War (1861–1865). She founded "Mothers' Day Work Clubs" to improve sanitation and health in the cities, and care for wounded soldiers on both sides. Her daughter Anna Marie Jarvis, who lived in Grafton- West-Virginia, continued these efforts after her mother's death in 1905 and succeeded to make Mother's Day a legal holiday in 1914 under President Wilson.

Unfortunately the commercialization of Mothers' Day embittered her. She was upset that Mothers Day was being turned into just another holiday, where stores make extra money by selling candy and items that say "Happy Mother's Day". The rest of her life she fought to undo Mother's Day. She said: "How can a card or some candy ever honor a mother? Are we too lazy to do something more for the woman who has done more for us than anyone in the world?"

God makes it very clear: Honor your father and your mother, every day of the year! Prayerfully, let us make that our goal for the rest of our lives!
