Practice, Practice, Practice

They say practice makes perfect. Practicing things over and over again is something most of us dislike doing, but lots of practice is usually the only way we are able to become good at any skill. This is the reason your Math teacher will assign you so many Math problems, or Mrs. Sehorn ask you to practice your lines.

In the last 2 years I have challenged myself to get better at typing numbers and the symbols associated with these keys without looking. When I learned to type in high school, I got lazy when it came to the top row of the Key board, always looking down and never learning them properly. Reflecting back, I wish I had learned to do it right the first time. But, now since I have been practicing I can type them most times without mistakes. Yah!!

I find it is the same in my Christian life. God has so much he wants to teach me so that I can walk like Christ. But in order for me to learn from Him, I must walk close beside him and practice those things he ask of me. When is the last time he has asked you to practice up on a Christ-like skill? Something like showing kindness and patience, learning to be humble, or showing someone forgiveness. I know for me, I have lots more lessons to learn. See you on the practice field.

He's Back !

Cameron Gerst left Hoskins for three months. Where did he go?
And what did he do?

F- "Cameron, where did you go for three months?"

C- "Alfred, Arizona."

F- "Who did you stay with?"

C- "My cousin, the Estelle's who live at the mission base."

F- "While you were there did you go to school?"

C- "Yes, I went to Valley Union High School, Blue Devils Rock!"

F- "The main reason you were going was to go play football, am I correct?
Did you get to play?"

C- "No, my main reason was to go fly and my second reason was to play football."

F- "Ok, did you get to fly?"

C- "Yes, I got 22 hours of flight time and I was able to fly solo."

F- "That's really cool, so your second reason was to play foot ball? Did it happen?"

C- "No, I broke my collar bone."

F- "How did that happen?"

C- "During a practice game one of my team members tackled me illegally in the back, and I broke my collar bone."

F- "That's a bummer. Even with this unfortunate event, did you still have fun?"

C- "Yes, I did."

F- "What was your most memorable time?"

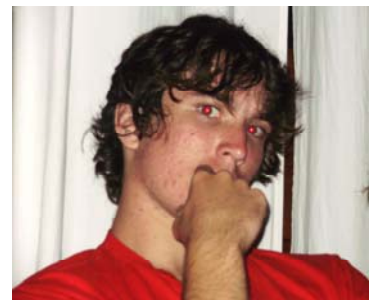

C- "The day I got to fly solo."

F- "What did you miss the most, while you were back in the states?"

C- "Family."

F- "So over all are you're glad that you went?"

C- "Yes."

Interesting Facts

Facebook

The founder of Facebook is 24 year old Mark Zuckerberg who designed it while at Harvard University to keep in contact with his friends. He is now the youngest self made billionaire.

Did you know that Facebook has over 70 million daily active users, and over 14 million photos are uploaded daily?

Facts

1. The average Facebook user spends about twenty-one minutes or more per day on the online social network.
2. The average Facebook user visits four times per day.
3. Facebook is adding about three hundred and fifty thousand new users every day.
4. Just this morning Facebook surpassed fifty million worldwide community members.
5. Facebook doubles its size every six months.
6. Interestingly, Canada does a little better for Facebook. The average Canadian Facebook user spends over thirty minutes on the site per day.
7. Syria is the only country that doesn't allow Facebook and has taken security measures to make sure it is stopped.
8. Did you know, those virtual gifts that you can send to people on Facebook cost about $1 and make 30 million dollars a year!

But Facebook, like anything, has its good and bad points. Some bad aspects of Facebook are that it can be addictive, and very time consuming. But it is also a great way to stay connected with friends and family all over the world!

Editors note

It is so good to see all your happy faces back at school after this long break.

Did you already find out where the hidden cameras are? By the way, we apologize for Mr. Diepenbrock. This time he is really too busy to write a headmaster's note. That gives us the opportunity to express our respect for the way he leads our school: great! Thank you for all your efforts, Mr. Diep!

Enjoy this new issue of M&M. Feel free to contribute small articles.

KIDS CORNER

Can you figure out what this proverb really means?

"A bad penny always turns up."

Winner

Mrs. Ebersole won the 'Malango Minutes' competition before break, she made 510 words of it! Wow that's a lot! And Jonathan was the runner up with 93! Good job guys!

Map 2 have been busy in art these past two weeks, first they made a large collage of the school that is hanging in the library. Mrs. Sehorn has been getting them in the fall mood, this week in class they made pumpkin toilet covers and are working on lanterns.
