Precious Stones from our Students

S.E.W was a really great weekend for me, both spiritually and just spending time with friends again!

One of the biggest things I've been learning in my Bible class is that for anyone who is serving God to finally come to the place where they begin to know the Lord Jesus as their Life, and cease trying to work for Him and instead letting him work through them.

During S.E.W. Tom Lotz told how it had been his plan to return to the field directly after college/Bible school. But the Lord had another plan for him at that time. Instead of it only be a few years, it was fifteen years before the Lord led him back to the field. That really stuck in my mind, and I found myself thinking, "What if that is what the Lord has planned for me? I've always dreaded the thought of living in the U.S...but what if...?" I began to say ok, and just as soon as I opened my mind up to the idea that maybe my 'mission' is in the U.S. the Lord started giving me one idea after another. Ideas of ways I could serve Him in the U.S. and I actually started getting really excited about the possibilities. I know it'll always be in my heart to be a tribal missionary, but if God wants me to wait a few years, I'm excited to see how He'll change my view of living in the U.S. — Aubri

Life is Short! Live for Jesus!

This SEW was very special! It was my first SEW here at Hoskins and probably my last SEW ever.

God reminded of me many things over that weekend. One truth that I was reminded of was that this life is so short compared to the eternity that we will spend in heaven if we have trusted in Jesus Christ as our I Savior!

I remember when I was little and it seemed like I waited forever just for my next birthday. Time seemed to pass so slowly, but now it seems like time is flying by. However we are not like those who have no hope. Take a second to think about what would happen to you when you die if you didn't have the hope of heaven. Pretty depressing, right? I thank God for His free gift of eternal life! BUT we need to share His message with others, so that they can have the hope of eternal life after death.

Life is a wonderful gift from God. What are you going to do with the one life on this earth that has been given to you? Are you going to do what you want with your life and waste the opportunity to bring honor and glory to your Savior? Or will you live for Him and store up treasures in heaven that will last forever and ever and ever.

I hope that you will choose to live each day for Jesus. Remember, life isn't long so make yours count!

A note from the Editor

Hey guys!

How has school been since S.E.W? Are you still excited about what God has in store for you, now and in the future? You should be! He has a plan for each and everyone of you now that you have been RESCUED. Sometimes you might have doubts and questions like "Can God really use me?" or "Does He really care about me and the things that I do?" I want to assure you that He does care and He has a definite plan for your life. The initial question is: Are you willing to surrender your life, and your ambitions to God so He can use you for his perfect plan! School has restarted and so has the everyday grind of homework and drama! Don't forget to live your life as a rescued son and daughter of Christ! -MW

KIDS' CORNER

Student of the week is Katelyn Hess!

Katelyn Hess is in third grade and her favorite subject is math because she is good at it and it is fun. Her favorite things to do are reading, cooking with her mum and going to school. Katelyn's favorite bible story is Esther's story. Katelyn said "one thing we can learn from this is that we need to be brave and obey God." Katelyn wants to be a doctor when she grows up so she can help people and make a difference.
